Your subject may be any event, any person, or anything that is important to you, as long as it is not immoral, political or controversial. Topic should be appropriate for all age levels. Something you know well and are comfortable speaking on. No props, poems, or singing is permitted. It is imperative that you memorize your speech and that you do not go over the 60 second mark. You will see a wide variety of gowns-partially beaded-chiffon with fuller skirts- halter style with straight skirt- fully sequined and beaded, with trains and without. Make sure to practice in your gown, including short flights of steps and simple pivots. Choose one in your best color that compliments you and makes you feel like a queen; but follow these guidelines:

- It must be floor length and should lightly touch the floor (with heels on).
- Splits in skirts should be no further than 4 inches above the top of the knee.
- Open backed dresses must stop at your natural waistline.
- Hi Low dresses, cutouts, sheer fabrics, extreme cleavage, shawls, wraps and gloves are not allowed.

- Make certain to try everything on at least the week before the pageant.

MAKEUP & HAIR

Different portions of competition require different approaches to make-up and hair.

Please follow the tips below:

- During your interview, you should look natural with classic makeup to enhance your features. You will need more color during the stage portion of the pageant as the lights will wash you out. Remember to stay age appropriate when applying makeup. Neutral colors are recommended. Eyelash extension may be worn and are highly encouraged on stage as long as it looks age appropriate.
- Don't forget to do your nails. Neutral, clear, french or nude is best.
- Hair should always be kept out of your eyes but this does not necessitate an evening updo. Choose a style that is simple, neat and professional during interview. Your final appearance on stage will be in your evening gown. You should style your hair in a way that works with your dress and makes you feel like a queen! What do you want your crowning moment to look like? Hair extensions may be worn throughout the pageant but should look natural. Please check with directors if in question.
- We strongly encourage you to schedule your hair and makeup appointments with our amazing sponsors at Bella Beauty Boutique located in Woodstock. Special rates will be offered and time slots will be first come first serve.
